

September 8, 2022

Announcement of Successful Applicants for the 2023 International Courses in the Department of Civil and Earth Resources Engineering and the Department of Urban Management

The registration numbers of successful applicants for enrollment in the 2023 International Courses are as follows:

For the International Course in Management of Civil Infrastructure in the Department of Civil and Earth Resources Engineering

6001 6002 6003 6004 6005

For the International Course in Urban and Regional Development in the Department of Urban Management

No successful applicants

Notes for Successful Applicants:

1. Materials regarding enrollment procedures will be sent to your designated address by the beginning of March.
2. If your address has changed, please send your updated information to the Admissions Office.
3. Applicants, who wish to decline their enrollment for any reason, are asked to notify the Admissions Office immediately in writing. (Any format is acceptable)
4. To enroll, you must obtain a "Student Visa" by April 1st, 2023.